

The Military and Hospitaller Order of Saint Lazarus of Jerusalem

The Commandery of The Marches

Wednesday, 3rd July 2019

Meet at Madresfield Court, Madresfield, Malvern WR13 5AJ at 10.30a.m.

10.45a.m. Start of guided tour of Madresfield Court, near Malvern in the heart of rural Worcestershire at the foot of the Malvern Hills. Madresfield Court is a moated stately home which has been in the Lygon family for nearly 900 years and is currently home to the 29th generation of that family. The house is an architectural masterpiece and played a significant part in nurturing the Arts and Crafts movement, as well as acting at least in part as the inspiration for Evelyn Waugh and Brideshead Revisited. It also contains a fine collection of paintings, furniture and ceramics. The tours allow you to see a large part of the house and the guides are a fount of knowledge and anecdote. The tours are enjoyed equally by both expert and enthusiastic amateur alike.
